

JOSEPH STABILITO

INTERIOR DESIGN INC

"Design is ultimately the solution to a problem. Form Follows Function is a valuable maxim when faced with the challenge of a design project... My goal as a designer is to express my client's needs and dreams, creating spaces that are uniquely beautiful and personal."

Joseph's passion for interior design is reflected in classic lines and bold strokes. His many years spent as an artist and designer are a testament to his inherent understanding of color. Joseph has brought his vision to many projects, from single rooms to entire homes. He enjoys both traditional and cutting edge design. Joseph's work has been featured in Architectural Digest, Country Living Magazine, & other publications.
